

Domata Peko, DT, Bengals

Domata Peko is excited to be coaching at the Pro Football Camp for the first time this year. At defensive tackle, Domata has proven to be a major threat for the Bengals' defense. The 2007 season was only his second year in the NFL and already he started every game. With this starting position, Domata had 65 tackles, with one pass defensed, one fumble recovery, and 1.5 sacks. In 2006, during his rookie season, Domata played in all 16 regular season games and recorded 43 tackles.
