

Eric Ghiaciuc, C, Bengals

Eric Ghiaciuc, center, 6'4" 302 lbs. is known as a tough, athletic competitor who makes the Cincinnati Bengals offensive line an elite unit. In 2007, Eric became the starting center. As a starter, he broke Cincinnati's franchise record only allowing 17 sacks during the entire season.

During his 2005 rookie season, he played in five games and was credited with excellent performances when he stepped in for the injured Rich Braham.

Eric has had such a great time at camp for the past two years that he is coming back for round three.
