

Leo Goeas, Former OL, Ravens

Leo Goeas entered the NFL in 1990 when he was drafted by the San Diego Chargers. He played with the Chargers for three seasons before stints with the Rams (1993-1996) and Ravens (1997). Career highlights include 112

NFL games with 81 starts at guard, center, and tackle. He was also the recipient of consensus All-Rookie Team honors and the Ed Block Courage award.

Since retiring in 1998, Leo has actively remained in the NFL working closely with college and NFL athletes in the sports representation business for Domann & Pittman. Leo, a native of Honolulu, Hawaii, earned a degree in Economics from the University of Hawaii.

2008 will be Leo's second year coaching at the Pro Football Camp.
