

Rich Griffith, Former TE, Jaguars

A passionate motivator, Rich Griffith, one of the Pro Football Camp founders, returns to lead the Pro Football Camp into its third year. Rich enjoyed a 7-season playing career with the New England Patriots and Jacksonville Jaguars as a tight-end and long snapper. As a 6'5", 260lbs. tight end, Rich's most productive year came in 1995 where, he caught 16 passes for 243 yards. While he was catching passes on the field, he also received several different humanitarian and leadership awards off-the-field. He received: Fellowship of Christian Athletes "Athlete of the Year", and the "Byron White Humanitarian Award". He was also nominated for the NFL "True Value Man of the Year" in 1996.

Rich is currently the Director of Men's Ministry and Sports and Recreation Ministries at Woodmen Valley Chapel in Colorado Springs.
