

Ryon Bingham, DT, Chargers

This summer's Pro Football Camp will be the first that Ryon Bingham is involved with. Ryon had a breakout year in 2007 for the Chargers, proving how well he could play when his number was called. Bingham racked up a career-high 58 tackles, played in every game and even made his first two starts.

During his 2006 season, Ryon saw playing time in all 16 regular season games and recorded 15 tackles.

In college, Ryon played football for the University of Nebraska, where he graduated with a degree in criminal justice.
