

Leo Goeas, Former OL, Ravens

Leo is back this year to help coach in the Pro Football Camp. Leo Goeas entered the NFL in 1990 when he was drafted by the San Diego Chargers in the third round (60th Pick) with whom he played for three seasons before stints with the Rams (1993-1996) and Ravens (1997). Career highlights include 112 NFL games with (81 starts) at guard, center, and tackle, recipient of consensus All-Rookie Team honors and the Ed Block Courage award. Since retiring in 1998, Leo has actively remained in the NFL working closely with college and NFL athletes in the sports representation business. Leo, a native of Honolulu , Hawaii , earned a degree in Economics from the University of Hawaii.

